

Ethernet Interface Specification

The Ethernet Interface shall connect between a standard Ethernet jack and the serial port of the show control system.

The Ethernet Interface shall support http, ftp and email protocols.

The Ethernet Interface shall be capable of serving web pages to operator control consoles, providing remote download and diagnostics capabilities.

The Ethernet Interface shall incorporate a real time clock for triggering show functions.